

f. That to the best of Plaintiffs' knowledge, information and belief, the said Octavia Shamwell died at a time unknown to the Plaintiffs, leaving her son, Elmer Shamwell, to whom her interest in the said property descended; that the said Elmer Shamwell was one of the grantors named in the aforesaid deed which conveyed the said property to the Plaintiffs.

g. That to the best of Plaintiffs' knowledge, information and belief, the said Olga Shamwell died in the year 1958; that the said Olga Shamwell nor anyone claiming title of her interest in the said property joined in the aforesaid deed to the Plaintiffs; that although diligent search has been made, no further information concerning the said Olga Shamwell has been obtained.

h. That to the best of Plaintiffs' knowledge, information and belief, the said Emma Shamwell-Sewell died at a time unknown to the Plaintiffs, leaving her son, Glenn Shamwell-Sewell, to whom her interest in said property descended; that Glenn Shamwell-Sewell was one of the grantors named in the aforesaid deed which conveyed the said property to the Plaintiffs.

4. That further information concerning any possible persons who may have an interest in the property herein described by searching the land records of Frederick County and by inquiry as set forth in the Affidavit attached hereto as Plaintiffs' Exhibit #2, has not discovered the whereabouts or information pertaining to said property except as stated herein.

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully requested that this Honorable Court:

1. Order that Defendants be served with process by posting a notice of this proceeding at the Courthouse door or on a bulletin
